Simply bold to write and on good to want to be summed to

I hope the day will be a lighter highway

Hoozard Of see Diana Gard

For friends are found on every road.

BILL HET STUDY POUR TO MANY TO STELL TO PALL TO STELL POUR STELL P

Can you ever think of any better way
For the lost and weary travelers to go?

Making friends, for the world to see,
Let the people know you got what you need.

With a friend at hand, you will see the light.

If your friends are there, then everything's all right.

It seems to me a crime that we should age.

These fragile times should never slip us by.

A time you never can or shall erase,
As friends together watch their childhood fly.

Summertree

Summertree," Sunset's first drama production of the year was presented in the school auditorium November 19 and 20

It is the story of a young man who is confronted with the pressures of home life, the changing of his moral values, the draft, and all the controversy with the Viet Nam war. The play was directed by Mr. James Shaffer. Student directors were Janet. Mason and Kristin Kelly.

The scene was set with large trees and a tilted platform. The play featured precise timing for the lighting sequences, all prepared by the stage craw.

Repertory Theater

A new dimension in drama, The Repertory Theater was presented at Sunset this year. Members of the third year drama class undertook the presentation of three plays of this style "Theater of the Soul" 'Antigone," and "Spoon River Anthology

The repertory technique involves the same 11 cast members taking parts in all productions. This means more intense work for the actors, they have to learn more lines and assume several different character personalities.

Characterization in the collection of poems by Edgar Lee Masters, called "Spoon River Anthology" was especially difficult for the third year students.

Sunset's Fine Arts Department presented their second dramatic production of the year, "The Music Man," on March 15-18

The play under the direction of Mr James Shaffer centers around a traveling salesman Professor Harold Hill, who stops off in the town of River City, Iowa, in an attempt to fleece local citizens out of their cash by pretending to be a well-known authority on boys bands.

Leads for this production were senior Dave Dale who portrays Professor Harold Hill, and senior Gretchen Prehn who plays the part of Marion Paroo

Vocal director was Mr. Gary Gadwood, instrumental director was Mr. Dell Herreid, assisted by Miss Mariene Majovski. Assistant to the director was Mrs. Kathy Meek.

The Apollo's win-loss record was not very impressive They all showed great effort and spirit. The new varsity coach from Kelso, Washington, Pete Hopkins felt that the 1971-72 football season was a year for laying down foundations for the future football program

Summarizing the season, Hopkins said, "We had great improvement in many players as the season progressed. They stayed with it, there was no letting down

Varsity Basketball

Coach John Wyttenberg's basketball team made a fine showing this year after a sluggish start in preseason games. The reason behind the success of the team was due largely to the philosophy on coaching At Sunset, we never talk of winning, we talk of doing our best." And they did their best, rolling over other teams with increasing strength as they rose to their height. Winning goes hand in-hand with the "doing our best" philosophy, as the team record shows

Wyttenberg's group approach to coaching also has a major impact on the performance of the team. He explains that seeing what works best for one person leads to better understanding between player and coach, which in turn leads to an improved rapport between the coach and the whole team

State Tournament

The Sunset Apollos placed third in the state 1972 AAA basketball tournament at the Memorial Coliseum in Portland during spring vacation. After annihilating incumbent state champion Benson in the quarterfinals, Sunset's hopes of playing in the finals were spoiled when a one point loss to Baker was sustained on a lucky shot by the Bulldog's center. In spite of the upset, the Apollos later romped on to stun-Klamath Falls and clinch the third place title with senior Richard Mollerup making first all-tourney team

J.V. Basketball

Sunset's 1971 72 junior varsity basketball team is made up mostly of juniors, with four sophomores rounding out the twelve member squad. The team has been described as being very cohesive and able to play well together, giving them good overall depth. The desire to win and their pride in a strong aggressive defense has made them a strong team according to coach Joe Simon.

Coach Simon feets that defense is a major concern in his coaching philosophy. He said that if the team can master this phase of basketball, then they can be successful in their game efforts.

The junior varsity, varsity, and sophomore bask rhall teams at Sunset operate under the same program and are continually sharing in practice time and coaching skills.

Sophomore Basketball

Sunset's sophomore basketball team, coached by Bill Broderick, had quickness and strength under the boards, making defense their strong point all season The team members also saw a marked improvement in their shooting during the 1971-72 season Towards the end of the season they were making about fifty percent of their field shots, compared with thirty-three percent at the start of the season. This improvement was a result of the one-half hour a day shooting practice

The aggressiveness of the team improved with every game, and because of this, the tempo of the whole game picked up. The team's fast break, the transition between offense and defense, and their full court press greatly improved. Coach Broderick attributed much of this success to the desire and speed of the team members

Fall Student Council

a hope that this Student Council will be remembered for its many successful endeavors. This council has created a much needed transition to student government at Sunset Very simply, through the efforts of all the students that volunteered their time. to help the student body through Student Council student government has become a more COMPLETE form of student representation

There is no way I can summarize what experience friendship, and good fortune I received from the others associated with Student Council. In retrospect those in student government met the challenges that confronted them. This has made for their success as a council and as individuals

I would like to thank the students, staff, and community members of Sunset that have been so willing to help me this year.

Thank you

Every Sunset student who has the necessary aptitude and interest is encouraged to study a foreign language of his choice

Whether for travel, for career preparation, for meeting college requirements or for the pure toy of learning something new, hundreds of students enroll in French German, or Spanish classes from elementary to fifth year levels. French and Spanish Clubs afford. opportunities to participate in culture and social experience outside the classroom. Field trips, dramacaroling, parties, and dinners are included in the year a activities

If your friends are there everything's all right.

It seems to me a crime that we should age.

These fragile times should never slip us by.
